Mr. H. H. STEPHENS:
My dear Sirs:—I would add my name to those of many others who have already received the favor of your advice. I do not think enough can be said in praise of your skill and knowledge. I have had many years with you, and the results of your skill are well known. Your treatment of my wife, who has been in a fever and kidney trouble, either of long in their acute forms, and who, I have seen that most wonder-of human kindness is most practical for thought.

WINGHAM, May 27, 1881.

Letter from South Hingham.

Our new bell and clock is the special admiration of all. The repairs on the church are still going on as rapidly as possible, and we expect to be able to open the church for religious services. Rev. W. Nichols, late of the Theological School, at Cambridge, has consented to officiate as pastor of the Society, and is expected to enter upon the duties of the office at the time herein specified.

The meeting house has been built about one hundred and thirty-five years. Its first pastor was Rev. Daniel Shute, who was ordained Dec. 10th, 1746. He remained the minister for fifty-three years. The next minister was Rev. Nicholas B. Whitney, who was ordained January 15, 1800, and who remained in the ministry here thirty-three years. Since then various ministers have occupied the pulpit at short intervals until Rev. A. G. Jennings was ordained and occupied it for eleven years, leaving for a situation in Chicago last May.

In 1829 the parish made a very thorough repair of their meeting house, taking out the old high-backed pews and putting in new ones of modern style, and otherwise repairing and altering said church. In 1870 the parish made a further repair of their church by making an addition to the west part and placing an organ therein. With the present repairs the church will be in excellent condition for many years to come. With the many embarrassments we have met, we are still hopeful for the future that the coming generations will carry the good work forward with energy and success.

The fire at South Hingham of which your Hingham correspondent speaks in your last issue, was a little overdriven. The house situated on Central Avenue, Friday and Saturday, to Central Avenue and Brainerd. Mr. J. L. Hunter, having leased the premises, took possession on Monday, Aug. 1st.

The Public Library is to be closed during the month of August. The Librarian will take a short vacation during the month, but will spend a portion of the time in preparing for the fall campaign.

Mr. P. D. Holbrook, of the firm of P. D. Holbrook & Co., South Braintree, has been very much afflicted with erysipelas, so much so as to lay him aside from his accustomed labor for several weeks, but has recovered sufficiently for a trip with his family to the neighboring state of Maine, to his friends whom he is visiting. May the change restore him to his wonted health and vigor.

It has been a common thing for East Braintree to be shrouded if any thing out of the common course happened in the vicinity, as being a hard place, but if the Braintree Observer is to be relied upon, it reveals a sad state of things among young lad's at South Braintree, that is really deplorable. When men cannot, while about their work, hang their clothing on a limb of a tree in the field without having the contents of the pocket stolen, money and watches taken; and when these have been taken, the thief has no time to escape, as the first thing to do is to engage the attention of an old lady whilst others of their number take from her pocket, her pocket book, appropriate its contents and return it to its place, certainly shows a condition of things that requires summary, as well as severe handling, that they, as well as others, may receive a salutary lesson, and the good name of this hitherto quiet and peaceful village be retained, and go down unshamed to those who come after us.

Mr. Leonard Cushing, one of our most respected citizens, recently died at the age of eighty-four years. Mr. Cushing was a member of the neighborhood in which he lived. He was regular in his habits—always attended church when able to do so. He remained a member of this religious society to the time of his death. A good example for many to follow.

PEMBROKE.

Last Sunday, a little after noon, Nannie S. Hayden, about 18 years old, was on her way home from Braintree, and in order to take the nearest way to her father's house, she took a way leading from the road, which she had not been accustomed to, and was passing along quietly, without thought of harm or danger. Dennis Mahoney, of Braintree, sprang upon her, threw her down, placed his hand over her mouth to prevent her outcry, and attempted to commence a struggle, threatening to kill her if she screamed. She struggled violently, and releasing her mouth from his hand, she made an outcry that was heard at her father's house, and also by parties picking berries in the vicinity. Her brother immediately went to her assistance, when the rascal ran, but was followed and identified. Mahoney was arrested on Monday by officer Farnald of Quincy, arraigned in the court of justice, and committed to the county jail, and bears an unavoidable stigma of the neighborhood in which he lived. He was regular in his habits—always attended church when able to do so. He remained a member of this religious society to the time of his death. A good example for many to follow.

PEMBROKE.

Last Sunday, it is said, boast of the oldest building in existence in New England, and consequently one of the most ancient in the United States. The house is at present occupied by Mr. George Barker, who is the only surviving member of the family, and who has reached the advanced age of eighty-seven years. This ancient structure is two and a half stories high, and is covered upon the entire outside with shingles.

PEMBROKE.

For Pemberton or any station on the Nantasket Beach Railroad have been put on sale at the different depots of the Old Colony railroad in town. Single fare from East Braintree, 35 cents; to Pemberton, and return, 50 cents.

EXCURSION.

There was an excursion from South Braintree to Nantasket Beach on Wednesday, many availing themselves of the opportunity to make their annual visit there.

VACANCY.

There is a vacancy on the board of school committee, caused by the resignation of Rev. Mr. Smith of South Braintree. This is a great loss to the board, to the town, and to the schools, because he was a man of previous experience in the care of schools; live energetic, active, zealous and faithful. All who have knowledge of his labors can but regret that he should feel this necessity laid upon him. A joint meeting of the selectmen and school committee has been called for next Monday, June 8th, for the purpose of filling the vacancy.

W. E. LEWIS.

In the above quoted letter from the board of school committee, caused by the resignation of Rev. Mr. Smith of South Braintree, it is said, "He was a man of previous experience in the care of schools; live energetic, active, zealous and faithful. All who have knowledge of his labors can but regret that he should feel this necessity laid upon him. A joint meeting of the selectmen and school committee has been called for next Monday, June 8th, for the purpose of filling the vacancy."

The Stable.

Mr. S. W. Thorndike has been completed and is a unique specimen of architecture, adding much to the attractions of the place. For convenience of internal arrangements it can hardly be excelled. Besides the stable proper there is a superintendent's room, a harness room, a carriage room 17x20 ft., and a stable containing four stalls, and all the conveniences known to be applicable to the feeding and watering the stock with ease and regularity. Mr. L. Faxon was the architect and S. M. Chaseley & Co., of Boston, builders.

Arrived on Saturday, Aug. 18, schooner Taylor & Mathis, freighted with coal signed to J. F. Shepard.

J. C. Custance, our popular blacksmith, left on Saturday last for a visit to his native place, which he has not seen for several years.

Attempted Murder.

Mr. John Malone, living in a house on Commercial St., went on Wednesday evening a short distance from home, with his wife, to call upon his daughter, Mrs. Frank Rossiter.

At 9 o'clock they started to come home, Mr. Malone was passing to get a drink of water, while his wife passed out and was consequently a little in advance. A Mr. Malone was passing along the sidewalk between Mr. Rossiter's and Albert Hobart's, and while the latter was smoking a pipe, he struck the man some hard blows, placing his arms around his neck. A short time since I received a letter from her saying she was still on her. About one year since, it seemed to settle on her that she had been given up by her doctor, who had told her she was in a hopeless condition. TO ALL WHOM IT CONCERNES. ABOUT THE DEATH OF MRS. FRANCIS BATES.

PILES.

I have a daughter now living in Center Township, Iowa, who for a number of years had troubled her. About one year since, it seemed to settle on her that she had been given up by her doctor, who had told her she was in a hopeless condition. TO ALL WHOM IT CONCERNES. ABOUT THE DEATH OF MRS. FRANCIS BATES.

PILES.

Yester evening, I wrote to my doctor, Dr. Frank Rossiter, asking him to come to see me. His reply was, send me some of the Pills. The doctor is a man of great experience and is well known for his skill in the treatment of piles. I am sure you will be better than I am.

Never that are Never Tranquill. Your people never seem never to be quiet. Questions such people will indeed. They are dyspeptic, and of an unequal temperament. Then you have the gout, and the rheumatism. These reinforce their enfeebled digestive organs, regulate the bowels, before they are too far gone. The best tonic for these people is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which leaves perfect digestion and assimilation, and the action of the bowels is then by the liver and bowels. As the system acquires tone through the influence of benign medicine, the nervous system becomes more quiet, and that relieves anxiety, which is a peculiarity of the people. It gives way to cheerfulness. To continue with the same foundation, now the mind is more vigorous.

They say that year was invented an Egyptian astronomer 357 years before Christ, and that the years were first made to agree with the months in the heavens—approximately at Kalamazoo, Mich., Feb. 2, 1860.

How Bitter will be recommended, honest! They who use them confer upon the highest commendations, and give them for their children, and their friends, and their friends' children. I have kept them since they first offered to the public. They took a long time to get up, but now they are more and more called for than all others combined. So long as they keep up their high reputation for purity and usefulness, they will be recommended.

ALL AROUND THE HUB.

RETURNING.

Before another week shall have passed, the thousands who have been indulging in a change, even if they have not enjoyed it greatly, during the past two months, will be returning from the shore and the mountains to what most of them will find, though they may not acknowledge it, are the greater comforts of their own homes. The season has been a very unsatisfactory one to those who have been at either the shore or the mountains, and we incline to the opinion that they will leave just when our most delightful weather is commencing; but inexorable fashion and the equally inexorable rules of the School Committee demand a general breaking up on or about the first of September. This is so universal that the proprietors of the hotels which depend wholly upon summer boarders have no encouragement to keep them open after the return to the city begins, for the summer people are like a flock of sheep—when one goes the rest follow. Happy are those families which reside in their own out-of-town houses and which have no children tied to the bell of a public school. It would be thousands of dollars in the pockets of some hotel keepers if they could induce the powers that be to extend the summer vacation of the schools to the first of October. One would suppose that after a season passed out of the city people would return displaying some evidences of their change of residence, but so carefully do our city belle's preserve their complexion from tan and freckle, their sojourn amid the scenes of nature is not allowed to overcome that exquisitely fashionable pallor which only nights devoted to the theatre, the opera or the dance can produce. Humbug is the order of the day; some who can't afford to go away, shut up the front of their houses, go in and out of back doors, let their front door knobs become tarnished and the steps mouldy; but we don't know as they are any greater frauds than are their more fortunate (2) neighbors who, at a fashionable hotel, worry through the heated term in a never-ceasing endeavor to out-dress and outshine other humbugs like themselves.

TWO BIG EXHIBITIONS.

When in September 1878 the charitable Mechanic Association held their exhibition in buildings on Park square, some parties who had forwarded goods for exhibition were shut out. We reflect there was a great deal of feeling in regard to the matter at the time, and it resulted in some of the dissatisfaction forming a new association known as "The New England Manufacturers and Mechanical Institute." Having secured a big tract of land on the extension of Huntington avenue, they have erected there an immense building covering very nearly five acres, and last week Thursday opened their first exhibition with a big procession and addresses by Gov. Long, the governors of Maine, Vermont and Rhode Island, and a host of other honorables and dignitaries. From a somewhat hasty glance at the list of contributors and of the various articles exhibited much of the vast space inside of the building will be occupied, and by the time it shall be needed for another exhibition, probably there will be found none too much room.

THE OLD MECHANICS FAIR. As the posters announce it, will be held during September and October by the old Massachusetts Charitable Association, in their new building which is also located on Huntington avenue and covers a floor space of seven acres. The exhibitions of this association have been triennially during nearly half a century a big thing for Boston, and while we do not know but there was room, possibly a necessity, for a rival, our people will not be easily led to forget the benefit that Boston has derived in the past from "The Old Mechanics Fairs." We trust there is room for both associations to meet success—we are most assiduously with both well, and when we look back to the small beginnings of the older of the two we can but reflect that the large oaks from little acorns grow.

A SINGULAR ADVERTISEMENT. It is an interesting study to read the advertising columns of a daily city paper. Each "Want," "Lost and Found" has more of interest to some one than all the news the paper contains. Once in a while we run across an "Ad" which awakens not only interest but curiosity, and of that kind was one which we saw in the Herald last week, in which a party who keeps a bird store in Dock square advertises for "any number of kittens from ten to eighteen days old."

Kittens? We have heard dark hints of those interesting creatures in connection with sausages. We also remember reading of a man in London who made an immense fortune by capturing every cat he could lay his hands on. He could imitate a "cat-call," and when Tom or Tabby in reply approached within reach, he would haul him or her. The skins he cured, from the flesh he obtained oil and fat for soap, and the oil was given to gins, of which the cat catcher kept a large number. But this doesn't explain the mystery of the ad to which we have referred, nor let any light on the use to be made of kittens of ten to eighteen days old."

POLITICAL. It is less than four weeks to the time of holding the Republican State Convention, and yet the Boston papers have given thus far not the least attention to the matter, if we except the attempt made by the Herald some weeks since to prove that it would be the proper thing for Gov. Long to decline a renomination. The probability now is that the entire ticket as constituted last year will be nominated at Worcester, and that the Boston delegation will do nothing to keep up the party organization, we don't believe there are half a hundred democrats in Massachusetts who would as lief have Gov. Long for chief magistrate as any other man.

LOCAL TOPICS.

Recruitment and Parade. We learn that Weymouth Encampment L. O. C. F. is to receive a visit from the Regiment of Mt. Washington Uniformed Patriotes of Boston, on Wednesday, Sept. 7th. The Regiment will come by special train over the O. C. R. R. to East Weymouth, and return in the evening. Dinner will be served at Town Hall by Caterers Tufts, of Boston. It is expected they will parade through the village before going to the Town Hall, and upon their return—As their uniform is said to be the same as seen on street parade, and the proposed route of procession will be from the East Weymouth depot through Commercial to High St., counter-marching from High St. through Commercial, Broad and Middle Sts. to Town Hall.

Journalism. The valued South Hingham correspondent, Mr. John Cushing, with his daughter Fannie, will visit Bangor for a short time, and will give our readers a description of what he finds interesting in the lumber empire.

Fire Engine Matters. It is reported that the Gen. Bates Company have a new fire engine to "Revell" American. It is to be turned to Boston music for the company on the occasion of the grand parade of the Weymouth Fire Department, the reply being $4 a day for each musician. The Gen. Bates will be taken to the tuner at Milford, and there is some talk about entering the veteran tub Amazon at that meeting.

Team Meeting. About 15 or 20 voters assembled at the Town Hall at 7 o'clock last Wednesday evening, pursuant to the warrant of the Selectmen, calling a meeting to choose a Tax Collector and act upon other matters connected with taxes and highways. Noah Vining was chosen Moderator of the meeting.

On motion, the two South Ward collections were first offered, and were bid off by Noah Vining at 7 miles; then the three North Ward were bid off at 8 miles, and in accordance with the motion the entire tax collection of the town was then offered, the bids starting at 7 miles and closing with 32 miles, being knocked off to Elias Richards. This necessitated a resending of the bill at the annual meeting to pay the Collector $8 miles, and the vote passed—that that the Collector should not hold over $20 at any time without depositing the same in the bank.

In the matter of improvement of Sea St., the report of the Selectmen was accepted and adopted.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Genealogist. J. W. Armstrong, Esq., Principal of the T. C. G. School, has been engaged in genealogical research of the Armstrong family, the first of whom in this country, Joseph Armstrong, came from England in 1711, in quest of his daughter, who had made a runaway match with a British officer, the pair embarking for America. He came to Boston, and being so well pleased with the country that he decided not to return to England, with his wife and children he settled in the western part of Rehoboth, now Seekonk, where Mr. Armstrong has found many interesting reminiscences of his ancestors.

Sticking to Principle. A well known resident of this town, who is an uncompromising advocate of temperance principles, accompanied a party to a seaside resort which he claimed to be unobjectionable to temperance people, but after their arrival at the place he took up the bill of fare, on which he noticed the term of "Lager beer, 10 cents," when he immediately left the place and walked all the way home as a protest against "sailing under false colors."

Disappointed. Mr. Frank W. Humphrey and family, of St. Louis, have occupied the Odell cottage, near the Atlantic House, for a season, and Frank had made preparation for the enjoyment of a week's fishing last week; but the advent of the easterly storm and foggy weather debarred him from the anticipated sport, and as our friends return to their western home is immediate, this pacesetter part of their pleasure will "lay over" until another season.

Officers. Officers Loud, Houghton and Macauley made a raid upon the premises of Peter Sullivan last Saturday night, and captured six qts. rum, one gall. whiskey and 46 bottles beer. Officer Houghton stated that an attempt was made to break into the house, and the offenders fled to a person outside, the liquor being concealed in the bed, but that the officers frustrated this by following the person who attempted to run out of the house, into the bedroom.

Birthday. Our venerable resident, Mr. Thomas Nash, reached the advanced age of ninety years last Sunday, and received the visit of his friends, who visited him on the anniversary. His health continues to be quite good for one of his extreme age, and he bids fair to become a centenarian.

Good Fortune. A resident in this vicinity made a successful venture in Elbridge & Son's store, this time ago pocketing about $50,000.00. The business was transacted through Mr. C. S. Williams, stock broker, of Weymouth, whose office is at 7 Exchange Place, Boston. He has been very successful in placing the orders of his patrons.

Mr. L. J. Jones and Mrs. J. A. Reed. of South Weymouth, are both ladies of good avaricious, and during their stay at the Wentworth House, Nantasket, made a visit to Minot's Library, in company of a party of friends. Being hoisted up to the tower by a tackle and fall is rather trying to the nerves of timid ladies even when of lighter weight; but these "solid" ladies bravely submitted themselves to the ticklish suspension between the belfry and the door of the tower, and were safely landed on the structure.

Excursion. A party of ladies connected with the Grand Army Circle of Weymouth Landing were conveyed to Baker's gardens at Ridge Hill, on Wednesday of last week, in E. Bourne's pleasure carriage.

Birthday. A party of young friends of Miss Carrie Gifford were entertained by her last Friday evening, at the residence of Rev. P. A. Nordell, and passed a merry hour in the celebration of the event of her twenty-first birthday, indulging in games of various kinds, and enjoying a nice treat.

Excursion. The Grand Army of Weymouth Landing made a raid upon the Nantasket last Saturday night, taking the "John" with them, Baker & Son's "Sunbeam" being the conveyance. The party arrived home at midnight, greatly refreshed with John's eloquence and clam chowder.

The 4th Regiment. Passed the day very pleasantly at Nantasket Beach, Wednesday, but Courier George A. Cushing had to leave the room at overcoat, which he had left in the room at the Hotel Nantasket devoted to the use of the Regiment. In company with his wife he went out on the plaza to listen to the music of the Cadet Band, and when he returned the coat was missing.

POLITICAL. The Hardscrabble Hook and Ladder Co. made an excursion to Nantasket last Saturday night, taking the "John" with them, Baker & Son's "Sunbeam" being the conveyance. The party arrived home at midnight, greatly refreshed with John's eloquence and clam chowder.

Change. A youth named Wood abstracted Mr. Newell Marder's "repeater" from his kitchen, last Saturday. Officer Mitchell was called, to whom the boy confessed having thrown it into the water. Grove Meeting.
The grove meeting held under the auspices of the Spiritualist association last Sunday, at Haywards Grove, was well attended in the afternoon, notwithstanding the dubious aspect of the weather in the morning, and the audience were well paid by listening to an able and eloquent lecture by Mrs. C. Fannie Allyn, upon "The powers of the human mind," and a poem upon "Where are our dead," both subjects being given by persons in the audience. The weather being such that no meeting was held in the morning, it was thought best to hold one in the hall in the evening. There was a full attendance, and the lecture was stirring and instructive, pointing out the probable effects the revision would have upon the people and their estimate of the book itself. After the close of the lecture she gave psychometric readings from handkerchiefs which had been wrapped in papers and laid upon the table previous to her entering the hall, which readings were eminently satisfactory, illustrating as they did the lecture of the afternoon, and showing the power of the human mind in this direction.

Appointment.

The grading and beautifying of French's College (so called) has been placed by the selection in the hands of Joseph A. Arnold, $200 was appropriated by the town at its annual meeting for this purpose. No doubt that the work done will be in keeping with the ornament which was placed over the entrance to the college a year or two ago.

Arrived at Sheppard's wharf, yesterday, schooner L. A. Babcock, loaded with coal; also, schooner A. P. Newell, loaded with coal consigned to J. F. Sheppard.

Improvement.

Mr. Thomas Arthur is improving the appearance of his residence very much by raising the roof, giving space for more chamber room as well. One who has not witnessed the improvements on this place as they have proceeded since Mr. Arthur bought the house, will be greatly surprised at the result. The hand has been spared hardly by under-harsh, and is now under cultivation, whilst this latter work upon the house adds new beauty to it and its surroundings.

Yankee Filled.

The vacancy on the school committee occasioned by the resignation of Alvaro Mason, was filled at a joint convention of the selectmen and school committee held last Monday afternoon, by the choice of Henry A. Johnson, Esq. An excellent selection.

E. H. Drinkwater, whilst assisting a neighbor in moving an ice chest, a few days ago, slipped, the chest dropping upon his ankle and causing a severe bruise.

Repairs upon the east district school house, for the convenience and advantage of the schools, have been in progress during the past week and nearly completed.

Improving.
Mr. John Malone, who was stabbed last week Weymouth, is doing well under the care of Dr. Thirkield, and will soon be back to his work again.

Arrest.
Michael Donovan was arrested on Friday last, by officers Fernand and Locke of Quincy, and Pease of Weymouth, for an assault upon John Maloney at East Braintree. He was arraigned in the District Court on Saturday morning, when the case was postponed for one week, Donovan being placed under $1500 bail for appearance at that time, failing to obtain which, he was taken to Dedham jail.

A Good Move.
We understand that an arrangement has been entered into by the Nutt Bros. with J. D. Whicker & Son, manufacturers of "The Royal Gentleman," that they will take all the stock of "The Royal Gentleman" in the strength of Judge Young's novel, for the terms of $1000, and will pay the Nutt Bros. the whole wad and woe of the tale. Of political dimensions, and in a graphic manner, three characteristic scenes in the life of the Royal Gentleman are described in the book. The Author of "The Royal Gentleman" is the Author of "The Poor White," and will soon be in running order.

"WOMAN'S LOVE AND LIFE."
A comparative edition with the old and new versions of "Woman's Love and Life," "Memories of Luther," "Universal History," etc., etc., translated from the fifth edition of the "Bible," and the new version will fully express the design of this book, would be a valuable addition to any library. The family rests upon, and sleeps upon the family. Hence, goes before everything. Tailored, and stands presented in literature, and religion, so that the children are destined to their own interests, both public and private, in presenting no stronger inducements for men in business to locate within our borders. Certainly, there is no town in this vicinity better situated as regards railroad facilities and accommodations necessary to the furtherance of business interests, but either because the owners of the land will not sell their land for such purposes, or else hold that which is available for it at so high a price, business men will not invest.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT.
The moving back of the fence in front of the residences of Paul J. Minchin and William A. Bishop, on Washington street, and the graveling of the sidewalk, has made a decided improvement in that part of the town, and it is hoped that some others may be induced "to go and do likewise." The work has been done under the direction of the selectmen, by Henry A. Pierce.

We notice that a few of the residents of East Braintree have caused all grass and weeds growing on the sidewalk by the side of the fence adjoining their land to be removed, thus making the sidewalks much milder and better to travel upon. If others could be induced to do the same, it would not only benefit the travelling public, but would pay the owners of adjoining lands in the saving of work another year, as well as in the nearer appearance of their fences and surroundings.

Retired.
Dr. T. H. Dearing has recently returned from his European tour looking pale and heavy, and has again resumed business.

Mr. W. J. Curtis returned home last Monday from a visit to Nova Scotia.

Literary.
We invite the special attention of our readers to the announcement of the new and valuable books which are for sale by Gen'l B. F. Pratt, of North Weymouth. His selections of works which he is enabled to offer to the public at the lowest rates, are judicious, and furnish the best of reading.
